COUNT HADIK'S DANCE.—Count Alexander Hadik de Futak, a Hungarian nobleman of wealth, who has been in this country since last July, gave a small and handsome dance last night in Hodgson's assembly rooms. The room was superbly decorated. The walls were almost covered with wild clematis vines, sprinkled with yellow and white jonquils. At intervals were placed huge vases of American beauty roses.

Mrs. Ogden Mills was the matron of the occasion, receiving with Count Hadik. The guests began to arrive shortly after eleven o'clock, and dancing was general until after midnight, when the cotillion began, Mr. Eliza Dyer leading. The favors were suggestive of the feast of St. Valentine, consisting of red carnation hearts pierced with golden arrows; tiny waxen cupid, wreathed with jasmine and flowers; horseshoes of carnations and of violets, and all sorts of amusing trifles. For one figure the favors were pink, which were cut from their own stalks just before they were handed to the dancers. There were also for one set, bouillonniers of green carnations. The dance was a very enjoyable one, the Hungarian music adding to the general zest and enjoyment. Supper was served by Berger from the buffet throughout the evening.—N. Y. Herald.
